SLAYERS MUST GO TO GALLOWS: SAYS LAWYER

Prosecution Gives Details of Its Plan of Action
Against Leopold and Loeb—Alienists Will Say
They are Sane, Crow Asserts

CHICAGO — (By United Press) — "Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb must die on the gallows or justice will be defeated," State's attorney Robert E. Crowe declared today in answer to an announcement by the defense that it will make every effort to prove the confessed slayers of 14-year-old Robert Franks are insane.

"We will place on the witness stand four of the nation's foremost alienists, all of whom will testify, rightfully, that these boys are sane. With that positive testimony, nothing short of the gallows for the killers will satisfy the state," he said.

Crowe, a "little dynamo" of energy, bristled with anger when told directly that the defense would rely upon a plea that the young millionaires' sons were insane. He announced he would direct the state's case in person, taking his position with his staff of assistants at the attorney's table throughout the trial.

CALLED PROPAGANDA
"The report that Loeb and Leopold are insane is nothing more than propaganda designed by the defense to throw dust in the eyes of men who may be called to serve on the jury," he said.

"No reputable alienist would testify the two murderers are insane. If any of them do, it will be because they are fools who were duped by the defendants or knaves who have profited by their gold," he said.

Statements that Nathan Leopold Sr. and Albert H. Loeb, multi-millionaire fathers of the young university graduates, have pooled together a "$1,000,000 defense fund" have been denied vigorously by Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel, and the parents themselves.

Crowe sneered at reports that Leopold and Loeb plotted the murder of Loeb's own brother before deciding to kill Robert Franks.

"That's bunk," Crowe exploded. "I wouldn't be surprised now if their lawyers didn't say Leopold and Loeb planned to kill each other."

Rumors that the defense would lay other and even more revolting crimes at the doors of Leopold and Loeb in an effort to prove the defendants insane were described by Dr. William O. Krohn, state's alienist, as "fictitious propaganda."

STATE IS FIGHTING Dr. Krohn in an attack upon statements issued by defense lawyers, the state was leaping into the fight for the first time since the kidnapping and the murder indictments were voted against the boys. The prosecution has been building up its case quietly and has not before issued statements from the defense.

Offer of the Chicago Tribune to broadcast the trial by radio from its powerful station WGN, which was put to a vote of its readers, was attracting considerable interest today. Opinions varied, according to early returns. Three hundred and eighty-five voted in favor of broadcasting the court proceedings and 420 were opposed. The poll will continue until a verdict is reached.

Clarence Darrow meanwhile, expressed his views on what kind of men would be looked upon with favor by the defense as jurors.

"All we want is honest men," the noted criminal attorney said. "The jury should be intelligent, especially in a trial of this kind, but we will not insist upon college graduates. We want simply men who know the truth when they see and hear it and have the courage of their convictions. Age will make little difference to us."

The state it is understood, will be most favorably upon married men of middle age, preferably fathers of boys between 12 and 15 years old.

DEFENSE FIXED
CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — A line of defense based on a theory of compound insanity for which attorneys say there is no precedent in medico-legal history, will be advanced in the trial of Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb, confessed kidnapers-slayers of Robert Franks, according to defense attorneys.

The youths are possessed of an interlocking personality, their attorneys say the reports of alienists and mental experts who examined them show, so that together they are impelled to the committing of crimes that neither alone could have conceived of executing.

The jury will be asked to consider the youths as a merged personality with the insanity of each coinciding in a murder impulse, it has been indicated.

Meanwhile the prosecution, headed by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, announces it is prepared to effectively shatter the defense's mental irresponsibility. The prosecutors have consulted several mental experts in outlining their side of the case.

REBELS GAIN IN REVOLUTION

Brazilian Military Authorities Are Baffled, Say Reports

BUENOS AIRES — (By Associated Press) — Trustworthy information received here from Brazil early today indicates that the rebels are getting the upper hand in the fighting around Sao Paulo. It is stated that the federal government has proposed to initiate "decisive operations" but the military chiefs do not entertain hopes of definite results.

Unless a political compromise is reached, the Brazilian warfare, which has now been waged for nearly two weeks between the Sao Paulo revolutionists and the federal troops, promises to be long drawn out. This is indicated by information filtering past the censor which is corroborated by statements from various voyagers arriving recently for Rio Janeiro, Santos and Sao Paulo.

GREAT RESOURCES
It is pointed out that the rebels have at their command the resources of the wealthiest city in the country where large manufacturers are centered, including arms and munitions factories which are now reported working day and night. The dictator's government in power is said to have the support of practically the entire population of more than 500,000 and to be functioning in an orderly manner.

While the insurrection seems to have begun as a military revolt, emphasis is placed on the prevalence of social and industrial discontent. It is stated that the city and state are paying more than 20 per cent of the national tax which provides funds for the federal government. It is declared that this district does not receive proportional benefit.

So far as is known, the rebels in establishing a provisional government, have not advanced the day and night. The dictator's government has demanded the resignation of President Bernardes and the pardon of military men involved in the 1922 revolt. Certain reforms are also asked.

AIDED BY COUNTRY
Most of the information thus far available seems to indicate that the federal bombardment of Sao Paulo aroused local patriotism and united the population in support of the provisional government and defenses of the city. It is pointed out that, from a military standpoint, the terrain above Sao Paulo, which is hilly, thickly wooded and with relatively few roads, makes for the prolongation of fighting. Military operations are difficult for the attacking army which will need greatly superior forces to do more than besiege the city.

FORCED TO LAND WHEN FOG FALLS

Big Plane of British Fliers is Not Damaged

WORLD BREATHES EASIER

Aviators Are Found on Island by Ship

TOKIO — (By United Press) — Major A. Stuart MacLaren, British round-the-world flyer will be off again for the storm swept north at 4 a. m. tomorrow. A dispatch from Nemuro, Island of Yeso with radio communication with Kokotan Bay where MacLaren was found this morning after being lost 48 hours, said that the big plane was not damaged and all of its four passengers were well and in high spirits.

MacLaren said the fog forced the landing. MacLaren plans to start at 4 a. m. tomorrow for Paramushiru if the weather will permit. At Paramushiru a major base for the flight is located.

TOKIO — (By Associated Press) — A Stuart MacLaren, the British aviator on a flight around the world who has been missing since he left Lake Toxomiyose yesterday morning for Paramushiru, Kure Island, early Wednesday morning, has been found.

MacLaren and his companions were found safe in a bay on the southwest shore of Uruppu Island, the island adjoining Yetoroff Island, from which the aviators started Wednesday morning.

The news was received in a wireless message from a steamer off Uruppu Island picked up by the Japanese destroyer Isokaze this morning. The Isokaze is proceeding to Uruppu Island.

BREATH EASIER
TOKIO — (By Associated Press) — The foreign community, and Japanese authorities, especially of the air service took a deep breath of relief today when news filtered down by wireless from the Kurile Islands that the MacLaren party of round the world fliers was safe.

The party headed by A. Stuart MacLaren, hopped off from Lake Toxomiyose on Yetoroff Island for Paramushiru Island last Wednesday. Until a Japanese destroyer, combing the rugged coast of the Kuriles, picked up a wireless report from the party had landed on Uruppu Island, near the starting point of their hop, no word had been received from them. Nor as yet, has anything concerning the reason for their landing at that point been received. The Japanese destroyers spent almost two days searching for them.

While in many quarters it was asserted that was little reason to fear for the fliers' safety, as the weather had been good, nevertheless definite information that they were alive and well was very welcome to many here who had interested themselves in the MacLaren party's pucky continuance of the flight regardless of obstacles.

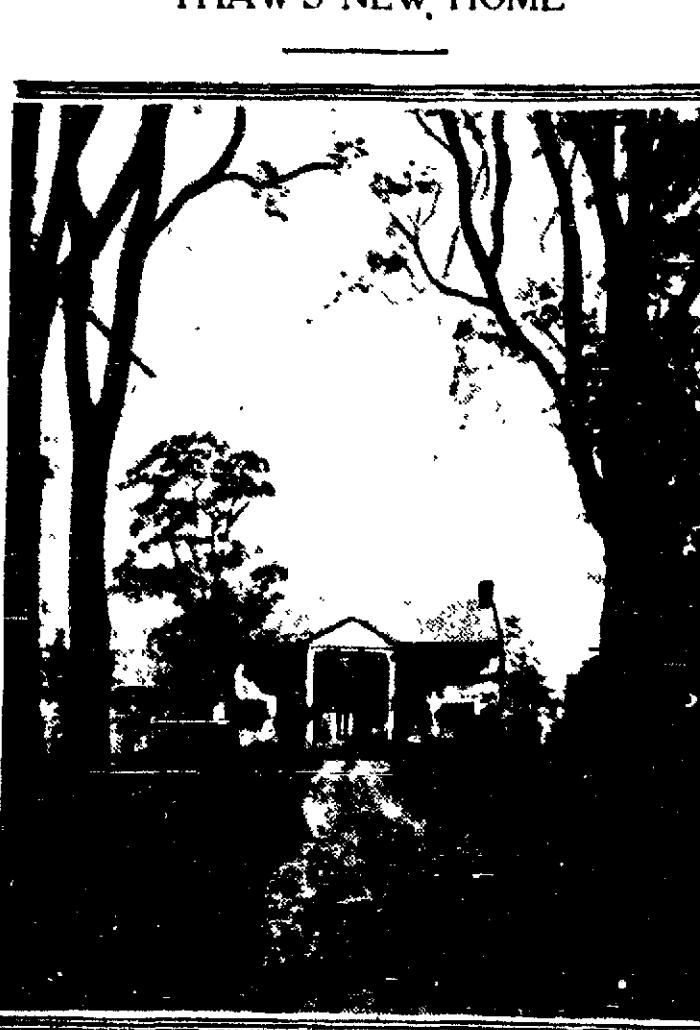

3 CHILDREN DIE IN FLAMES
Explosion Wrecks Home; Parents Seriously Injured

IRONTON — (By Associated Press) — Landay Barber, 5, Amy Barber, 4, and Corinne Barber, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barber, were burned to death early today when their home, a four-room cottage, at Coal Grove, three miles east of here was entirely consumed by fire.

Both parents are in the Martin hospital here and so far have been unable to give a coherent account of the tragedy. Neighbors report they heard a muffled roar and looked out to see the parents jump thru a window and then the whole front of the house burst into flames. A gas explosion is believed to be responsible for the conflagration.

THAW'S NEW HOME

In this peaceful country estate at Winchester, Va., Harry K. Thaw now plans to stage a peaceful "fade-out" to his hectic life story. Determining upon the quiet, simple life of gentleman-farmer, the chief figure of one of the most sensational cases in criminal history has purchased this idyllic southern farm with the avowed intention of settling down.

What a contrast to the lurid flash pots that figured in his spectacular trial!

Infant Enjoys Pin In Stomach

CLEVELAND — Enjoying most strenuously the sensation he is creating, seven-months old Edward Bojorski laughed right out loud today when an X-ray of his tiny abdomen showed that the open safety pin which he swallowed last Monday is slowly working its way thru his body.

The pin has changed its position slightly, physicians said, having turned to one side, and the only danger now is that it may injure the membrane of the intestine.

The baby's mother, Mrs. Bojorski, is in a state of collapse, utterly unable to share in the infant's merriment.

AMATEURS LOOT GROCERY

Loss May Reach $25, Police Are Informed

Robbers Thursday night shattered a window at the Rockhill grocery, 935 E. High st., rifled the cash drawer of between $5 and $7 and escaped with merchandise valued at approximately $25.

Loot consisted of a quantity of silk hose, three men's shirts, talcum powder and cigars. Inventory of stock may reveal a greater loss, according to Police Sergeant Morley and Grant who investigated the robbery shortly after it was discovered Friday morning by Rockhill.

Robbers smashed the upper window glass and raised the lower frame by reaching in and unlatching the catch. After the store was looted escape was effected by way of the front door, which was discovered open Friday morning and lead to the robbery discovery.

Police advance the theory that the gang of juvenile robbers responsible for the jobs last Saturday night at the Western Ohio Railway Co. and the Western Ohio Lumber Co. and the Consumers Fuel and Supply Co. perpetrated the grocery store job.

The other theft of the night reported to police was the theft of a spare tire and rim from an automobile owned by C. L. Lathrop, 317 S. Pierce st., which was parked at McCullough's lake.

ITALIAN CRUISER HIT BY STORM; CREW SAVED
ROME — Struck by a hurricane while off the volcanic island of Pantelleria, Sicily, the Italian cruiser of Auto of 250 tons, sank in the Mediterranean during the storm Thursday.

The crew is reported rescued by a Japanese steamer, but airplanes, dirigibles and steamers were dispatched to the spot where the cruiser went down.

NEW LIGHT SHED ON BRANDING

Minister Planned to Depart for "Parts Unknown"

FONTIAC, Mich. — (By United Press) — Rev. Oren Vanloon, Berkely minister who was branded on the back with the three K's planned to depart for "parts unknown," a letter, said to have been written by him just before his mysterious disappearance indicated today.

Oakland officials learned of the contents of the letter from Edward Davis, stock farmer near Birmingham and former business associate of Vanloon.

The letter indicated that the minister was planning to leave the community in order to get a new start in business and pay off money which he owed.

"I am departing for parts unknown. I am leaving for greener pastures. You might not see me again," one portion of the letter is declared to have read.

Vanloon, questioned by county prosecutor Blackwell and Sheriff Lums, Thursday, did not offer any explanation, but insisted that it would be explained in due time.

He has declared, however, that the letter has nothing to do with his disappearance and branding.

The letter expressed friendship for Davis, although the pastor intimates that one motive behind his plans for leaving the community was his desire to break away from Davis completely.

The minister was missing for 11 days and during that period the brand was burned into his flesh. He still is unable to give any account of his wanderings and experiences in that time.

Another mysterious angle of the case expressed authorities today. They found Davis had turned his front house into a veritable fortress. He is fearful of some attack. He has already been fired upon and pursued by strange men, he said, and a least fifty cars had apparently been parading the farm for a short period after the discovery of the branded pastor in Battle Creek. A grand jury investigation is now likely, according to authorities.

SELECTION OF RUNNING MATE IS NOT YET MADE

WASHINGTON — Prospects of selecting a running mate for Senator Robert M. La Follette were remote today as Progressive leaders from all parts of the country met to perfect plans for the independent ticket campaign.

The delay was not brought about by any deadlock or dispute, it was said, but merely by the fact that a multitude of details must be disposed of before the national committee can get down to the business of naming a vice presidential candidate.

AIRMEN PREPARE FOR SEA TRIP

American World Fliers Rule Against Extra Weight

WIRELESS IS ABANDONED

Final Tests Are Arranged for Next Tuesday

BROUGH, England — (By United Press) — America's airmen will go into the north on the last stage of their world flight without wireless equipment on their planes, Lieut. Lowell Smith commanding the sky expedition, announced today. The object is to avoid overloading the planes.

Business of overhauling the machines in which the fliers will make their homeward dash has progressed so rapidly that the old engines were ready for removal this morning and it is expected now that the aviators will get away with the flood tide Wednesday morning. Tuesday will be devoted to testing the new floats on the estuary of the Humber.

It had been Lieutenant Smith's intention to have the planes equipped with wireless apparatus for communication with the destroyers which will patrol the Iceland-Greenland-Labrador route but it was found that the floats and necessary anchors now being installed are adding 1000 pounds in weight to each machine.

Wireless apparatus, however, comforting, would mean another 110 pounds, so Lieutenant Smith ruled against it.

COURT HOUSE IS CROWDED

Many Taxpayers in Rush to Settle Accounts

Scores of tax payers, who waited until the time limit was nearly expired, stormed the county treasurer's office Friday in an effort to get paid up.

Saturday is the last date for paying taxes without penalty. Hundreds and thousands of dollars had been paid in before noon Friday, with no diminution of the throngs that were lined up waiting clear back into the corridors.

Harry B. Botkins, anticipates that collections for Friday will total more than $50,000. A heavy day Saturday, he said, will go a long way toward placing collections on a normal basis.

Collections for Thursday were disappointing, Botkins said, as the crowd was not large enough to keep his force working steadily. Besides money that is paid in by property owners in person, Botkins expects to collect nearly $100,000 by mail. Large numbers of letters, believed to contain checks, are being received. They will be taken care of next week.

Sheriff Believes They Are Parole Violators

INVESTIGATION STARTED

Trio Held Pending Examination by Prison Official

Three youths who gave their names as Raymond Ambos, 31, Joe Hackett, 19, and Walter Glass, 20, and who are believed to be Mansfield parole violators who escaped from Sandusky soldiers' home where they were working as table waiters, were captured Thursday night by Sheriff Cresson near Cairo.

The three had come to Cairo by a report that an automobile had been stolen from a farmer named Hall near Beaverdam.

He found no trace of the car but located the trio in a wheat field on the Lincoln Highway west of Cairo. Two of the three were penniless but had suitcases. The third had some money.

Cresson, communicating with Mansfield reformatory heads and found that three boys detailed as waiters at the soldiers' home ran away several days ago. An officer will come to Lima at once to see if the three are the missing youths.

All three claim to be painters enroute to St. Wayne to seek work.

The three had in their possession white suits and skull caps, such as worn by waiters. They declared they used the garments for painting, but none of the clothing apparently had ever been used for such purpose, Cresson says.

The three are held waiting arrival of an officer to identify them.

PROGRESS MADE AT PARLEY

British Premier Feeds Statesmen Bacon and Eggs

LONDON — (By United Press) — Progress over the breakfast table at Number 10 Downing street, where Premier MacDonald fed a host of British and American statesmen kippers and bacon and eggs and they talked reparations problems informally, brought the conference on the experts' plan closer to the plenary session and agreement stage today.

American Ambassador Kellogg, Premier Herriot of France, Premier Tamm of Belgium and Mino D'Addato of Italy were among those who breakfasted with the British premier.

It was understood the private chat promised to have the most important bearing upon future progress of the inter-allied conference.

STILL IN COMMITTEE
The conference is still in the committee stage. Committee Number 3, on which the United States is represented by Ambassador Kellogg and Colonel James A. Logan Jr., resumed its consideration of paragraph five receding in the Franco-British memorandum this morning. This paragraph reads:

"(G) — In order fully to take advantage of the reparations payments contemplated by the experts' report and in order to insure benefit thereof to the nations concerned, the allies shall institute a special body, whose task will be to give the governments concerned an opinion on the question of what system should be used with a view to utilization of the payments by Germany in particular concerning transfers and payments in kind."

Committee Number one, on which Ambassador Kellogg, Colonel Logan, Lord Fraser and Frederick Delboare represented the United States, was to meet this afternoon to continue discussion of American participation in the reparations commission's work and appointment of an American as agent-general of payments.

Breakfast at the premier's residence started at 7:45 and ended at 10 a. m.

WHITE WOMEN CAPTURED BY AUSTRALIAN NATIVES
LONDON — A band of big Australian Aborigines sank a 300-ton schooner Douglas, captured the male survivors and carried off an unknown number of white women, according to a Central News Dispatch from Sydney, where the report has created a tremendous sensation.

A strong force has been patched into the northern territory in the hope of rescuing the women.

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — The third Pan-American Scientific Congress, which is to convene in Lima, Peru, next November, has extended a cordial invitation to all professional and scientific men and women in this country to be present. Official invitations are being sent out from the office in this city of Eduardo Higginson, Consul General of Peru. The convention will meet November 16 and continue for two weeks.

Those who attend this congress in Peru may be assured of a most cordial welcome by the Peruvian people. Mr. Higginson said today "They will be received with all the hospitality and friendliness that is traditional of the people of Latin America. There is, of course, much detailed information regarding this gathering, and I would be glad to communicate with any one interested."

The December conference is to be divided into nine sessions, as follows:

Declares The Plant Juice Medicine Ended Stomach Trouble Almost at Once

"I surely was surprised but it is the absolute truth that your Plant Juice Medicine relieved me of my stomach trouble almost at once and I haven't had a particle of suffering with my stomach since."

MR. JAMES M. JACKSON

since," declared Mr. James M. Jackson, well known traveling salesman living at 503 West Sixth Street, Fort Worth, Texas, while talking recently with the Plant Juice Man.

"Two years ago my stomach suddenly seemed to become shot to pieces. What I ate would cause me to suffer terribly from gas and acid in my stomach. Indigestion and shortness of breath. I felt tired and worn out all the time. Lost 25 pounds and finally got so bad that it seemed like it would be impossible for me to continue over my territory.

"I tried many different medicines and treatments but it seemed like nothing would help me and I surely was discouraged and then one day one of my customers told me about Plant Juice. He said his wife had taken Plant Juice for trouble similar to mine and he begged me to try it.

"I'll admit that I didn't have much faith in any medicine for I had tried so many without results, but to please these people I got a bottle of Plant Juice and started on it. I certainly was surprised because it seemed to reach my trouble right away and I went out to a restaurant and ate a big hearty meal and it didn't cause me any suffering at all. I continued taking Plant Juice and it seems now like I have a new stomach and can eat anything and never suffer from indigestion or shortness of breath. I have gained 25 pounds and simply feel like a 3-year-old and I think Plant Juice deserves the highest kind of praise."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima by the Hutter drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets; and by the Argonne drug store, oppo. Post Office.

Activities in Blue Sky Department Are Investigated

COLUMBUS — (By United Press)—A broad investigation of the activities of certain officials in the "blue sky" department in connection with the certification of stock in numerous companies which have failed in Ohio during the last year and a half was started in Columbus today by Prosecuting Attorney John R. King.

The action was precipitated when the Ohio Industrial Endowment Company crashed due to the alleged unavailability of more than $250,000 by its former president, Louis W. Johnson, 26 year old attorney.

In a letter to the prosecutor, Attorney General Crampton stated that the company was organized in the Endowment Company but had been to include the Ohio Industrial Endowment Company now in the hands of Receiver Edward Turner and The North Carolina Farm Company, a Delaware subsidiary whose receivers have reported, Crampton says, that the company will realize more than $200,000 to pay out $3,000,000 worth of stock.

"It is unthinkable," the letter to the prosecutor declared, "that men should continually rub the people as they have if the departments which have access to their records are performing their duties."

FIRES ARE OUT ON COAST

Loss in Western States is Declared Enormous

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—(By United Press)—Fires which have raged in Pacific coast forests for a week died out today.

Ranchers, driven from the fire zones returned to their homes, sometimes finding them in ruins, campers ventured into the burning lanes again.

Most of the fires were either extinguished or were rapidly burning out. In the Pacific northwest in the Bend Oreille district of Washington, the greatest damage was done. Harvesting operations were stopped.

Some of the fires in that vicinity probably saved their lives and some of their possessions by leaving the burning areas and running to the mountains. They waited eighteen to twenty four hours for the flames to pass.

The fire burned the surface workings of the mines above the and destroyed in some instances, the homes of the refugees.

Then, when the fire had passed, they climbed out to the surface again and made their way through the waste, still smoldering country to the town of Kellogg, Idaho.

"It was a picture I cannot forget," said W. C. Dillon, one of the refugees.

"Every few hours we would approach the mouth of the tunnel and could hear the fire crackling overhead or smell the smoke. Then we would return and wait until we thought that the fire might have passed.

"Finally we were able to come out and saw the whole country laid waste."

E. North-st Bridge Damage is Asked by Woman

City of Lima was again made defendant in a suit arising out of the grade on the E. North-st bridge approaches in 1921, when a damage action was filed in common pleas court by Mrs. Cora I. Evans, nee Cora I. Leith, of 518 W. North-st.

Mrs. Evans asserts that her property located at 832 to 838 E. North-st inclusive, is damaged to the extent of $1,631.39 by the city's action in raising the street from two feet to three feet in front of her property.

She asserts that the grade for the street was established by ordinance and the building on her lots, side walks and levels were made to conform.

In 1920 a bond issue for $140,000 to construct bridges at E. North-st and E. Elm-st were ratified by vote of the people.

Contracts were let and in 1921 Greer and Sawyer, contractors, commenced work on the E. North-st structure.

The level of the bridge was elevated according to plans several feet higher than the former structure.

W. C. T. U. RAISES MONEY TO KEEP MAN IN WORK HOUSE

LEIPSPIC — The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Leipspic, has decided to assist in the payment of the board of Ambrose McCullough, who is serving a term in the Toledo work-house.

McCullough was convicted of drunkenness and disorderly conduct while driving a motor car on Leipspic streets. He was committed to the work-house until a fine of $5 and costs is paid.

It was discovered that some one must watch for the payment of McCullough's board while there. The W. C. T. U., while they are seeking punishment of the offender, has decided to withdraw from their treasury an amount of money sufficient to help pay McCullough's keep.

SCIENTISTS TO VISIT LIMA

Peruvian City Extends Invitation to all Interested

IS UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

Many Subjects Booked for Nine Conferences

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — The third Pan-American Scientific Congress, which is to convene in Lima, Peru, next November, has extended a cordial invitation to all professional and scientific men and women in this country to be present. Official invitations are being sent out from the office in this city of Eduardo Higginson, Consul General of Peru. The convention will meet November 16 and continue for two weeks.

"Those who attend this congress in Peru may be assured of a most cordial welcome by the Peruvian people," Mr. Higginson said today. "They will be received with all the hospitality and friendliness that is traditional of the people of Latin America. There is, of course, much detailed information regarding this gathering, and I would be glad to communicate with any one interested."

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

The second and Pan-American Scientific Congress was held in Washington in the winter of 1915-16, and wide-spread interest was manifested in the proceedings. The forthcoming gathering is regarded by scientific men as an exceptional opportunity for the advancement of scientific ideas and discoveries for the benefit of the peoples of North and South America.

The December conference is to be divided into nine sessions, as follows:

1. Anthropological and Historical sciences.
2. Physical and Mathematical sciences.
3. Mining, Metallurgy, economic geology and applied chemistry.
4. Engineering.
5. Medicine and sanitation.
6. Biological and Agricultural sciences.
7. Private, Public and International right.
8. Economic and Social sciences.
9. Education.

All proceeds are turned over to the Sunday schools.

HE SAYS IT WAS A BIG SURPRISE

Declares The Plant Juice Medicine Ended Stomach Trouble Almost at Once

"I surely was surprised but it is the absolute truth that your Plant Juice Medicine relieved me of my stomach trouble almost at once and I haven't had a particle of suffering with my stomach since."

MR. JAMES M. JACKSON

"I declared Mr. James M. Jackson, well known traveling salesman living at 503 West Sixth Street, Fort Worth, Texas, while talking recently with the Plant Juice Man.

"Two years ago my stomach suddenly seemed to become shot to pieces. What I ate would cause me to suffer terribly from gas and acid in my stomach, indigestion and shortness of breath. I felt tired and worn out all the time. Just 25 pounds and finally got so bad that it seemed like it would be impossible for me to continue over my territory."

"I tried many different medicines and treatments but it seemed like nothing would help me and I surely was discouraged and then one day one of my customers told me about Plant Juice. He said his wife had taken Plant Juice for trouble similar to mine and he begged me to try it."

"I admit that I didn't have much faith in any medicine for I had tried so many without results, but to please these people I got a bottle of Plant Juice and started on it. I certainly was surprised because it seemed to reach my trouble right away and I went out to a restaurant and ate a big, hearty meal and it didn't cause me any suffering at all. I continued taking Plant Juice and it seems now like I have a new stomach and can eat anything and never suffer from indigestion or shortness of breath. I have gained 20 pounds and simply feel like a 35-year-old and I think Plant Juice deserves the highest kind of praise."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima by the Hunter drug store, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets; and by the Argonne drug store, Foot Office.

MODERNISTS TO BE BANNED

International Bible Students Bar Controversial Subjects

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — While a cry of protest from the convention of the International Bible Students Association, convening here today, the fundamentalist-modernist controversy will not be touched upon, officials declared here today.

The convention will probably discuss a discussion of the Bible and the work of the association, but it will not be debating the controversial subject.

Judge J. R. Hoff, president of the association, said the convention is held to make a study of the Bible and to discuss the work of the association, but it will not be debating the controversial subject.

Another feature of the convention will be the election of officers for the coming year.

Most of the convention will be held at the Hotel Columbus, but some sessions will be held at the local churches.

The local church has agreed to provide a room for the convention at the Hotel Columbus.

Members of the association will be staying at the Hotel Columbus.

CONFERENCE TO FILL TICKET

LaFollette's Running Mate to be Named by Committee

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Confronted with the task of perfecting national campaign organization and of selecting a vice presidential candidate, more than a score of Senator LaFollette's chief supporters gathered here today for a series of conference.

Among those who have been under consideration by Senator LaFollette and his advisers are Associate Justice Brandeis of the supreme court, Huston Thompson, chairman of the federal trade commission, John J. McSparren, master of the Pennsylvania state grange, Peter Witt, one time candidate for mayor of Cleveland, James Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, Governor Sweet of Colorado, Bishop Francis McConnell of the Methodist Episcopal church, Federal Judge George W. Anderson of Boston, and Senator Wheeler of Montana.

Wheeler, however, has eliminated himself by announcing he would not accept the endorsement, and while Justice Brandeis is understood to be looked on with particular favor by Senator LaFollette, doubt has been expressed today whether he would be willing to resign from the supreme court.

MANSION COPIED

D. A. R. Reproduce Mt. Vernon Home of Washington

SEATTLE, Wash. — The Associated Press. The historic home of George and Martha Washington at Mount Vernon, Virginia, is being copied here in every detail by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The building has been broken on a site in the exclusive Harvard neighborhood, and it is hoped to have the building completed in September.

The faithful reproduction of the Washington mansion will include such details as the hollyhock in the walls and the little square hole in the bedroom door through which the father of his country was wont to call his favorite child.

The surrounding grounds are being planted in Virginia bluebells and hydrangeas after the fashion of the grounds at Mount Vernon.

The cost of building the mansion is estimated at $25,000. The building, besides serving as a historical monument, will be used by the Daughters of the American Revolution for a club house, and it is planned to hold numerous social functions there. Bonds are being sold with a view of making the place self-supporting.

ADVERTISING IS UPHELD

Not an Experiment Says Noted Bank President

PUBLIC IS EDUCATED

Public Gauges Business Upon Information Received

"merchandising ideas is quite as proper as its use in the sale of goods and services." He asserted the development of a new relation to the public thru advertising has led in the banking business to high ideals and to far broader conception of its opportunity for useful service to the community.

"Thus today, the great American banks in their advertising are doing much to combat economic fallacies and to instruct the public in the field of sound finance, and there can be no doubt of the usefulness and effectiveness of this propaganda for higher economic and financial standards. This positive reflex action of good advertising upon the advertiser himself has taken place in banking, is also evident in many other industries and activities."

The day has long passed, Mr. Sisson declared, when advertising could be considered a mere experiment or a speculation.

"It has long since become a demonstrated economic factor as a business builder and stabilizer," he added, "as well as a clearly proved educational force. Today particularly invites the advertiser to lay up stores of good will and prestige for future markets. Now is the time for advertising to be informative and educational, to help create new standards of living, to stabilize markets, to make life more comfortable and attractive, as well as more just and sound."

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — Every dollar spent for advertising space adds to the necessity for exactness, of statement of integrity of product, Francis Sisson, vice-president of the Century Trust Company of New York said in an address today before the annual convention of the United Advertising Clubs of the World. His topic was "Advertising as a Creator of Public Standards in Business."

The standards fixed by the merchant or manufacturer in public statement and printed word become the standards of distribution and production," he added. "If the inevitable loss of public confidence and good will, its bankruptcy, moral as well as financial. Good will is the product of good goods, good service and good advertising. Properly, it is an invaluable asset, not violated in either of its essential elements, a fatal liability. It is a business insurance. It protects the public and provides the buyer with a guaranteed trade-marked article with a triple guarantee of quality—from the merchant, the manufacturer and the publisher. It fixes the standard which maker and distributor must meet and provides a definite goal for business achievement."

MR. Sisson said the conclusion reached that it was just as proper to merchandise service as to sell commodities. The next step would be the use of advertising in

PROHIBITION IS LAUDED

Conference to Make World Dry Opened by Bishop

GOOD BUSINESS," CLAIM

Program for Future Outlined by Speaker

WINONA LAKE, Ind. — (B. A. Associated Press) — "We must build our nation on the solid foundation of righteousness, law and good will. It is the duty of every citizen to support the prohibition movement for the sake of the family life and for a land of half prosperity."

This was the keynote of an address today of Bishop Nicholas of Detroit, before the annual conference of the Anti-Saloon League of America, which opened here today.

The bishop, who is president of the governing body of the American Episcopate, said that the prohibition movement is the only one which has the moral and spiritual forces of the world on its side.

"The experience of past years in America," he said, "has demonstrated that the prohibition movement is the only one which has the moral and spiritual forces of the world on its side."

"Sobriety pays," he said, "and the American people are beginning to realize this. Prohibition is not a religious issue, it is a business issue."

"We must attempt the transformation of the daily press. The idea that nothing is news but the abnormal is as pernicious as the doctrine of force."

ALLEN-CO WOOL AT COLUMBUS

Year's Clip is Stored for Sale Cooperatively

Wool belonging to Allen-co wool growers is in storage at the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers' storehouse in Columbus, County Farm Agent H. J. Ridge announced Friday.

Word has been received here that the wool market is looking better and that the stocks of wool held in primary markets are selling well for this season of the year. As the dealers have less stocks on hand than usual, the demand is going up and there are a number of mills that are buying their wool direct from the grower.

More than three million pounds of wool were sold last year, and the amount will be about the same this year, Ridge said.

At Columbus, the wool is being stored in a large building, and it is expected that it will be sold in a few days.

Rib Will Make Girl New Nose

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — An operation on Miss Rosetta Duncan's nose, broken in an encounter with police of Cicero, a suburb, on July 4, will be made to restore its former shape, surgeons have decided.

Cartilage will be taken from one of Miss Duncan's ribs, cut and shaped to the required size and grafted into the nose, they plan.

Miss Duncan and her sister, Vivian, co-stars in a musical comedy playing here, and her brother, Harold, were arrested at Cicero for violating a traffic rule while motoring from the Hawthorne races to Chicago.

The surgeons charged the Cicero policeman brutally beat her and her brother. In addition to a broken nose, Rosetta said, they broke several of her ribs. Physicians attending her brother stated that a blow on the eye he received from one of the policemen will impair his vision.

The Duncan party recently was fined $1 and costs for violating a traffic ordinance and appealed the case. Yesterday the policemen and to have been implicated in a case filed suit for $60,000 damages as the result of injuries they said Rosetta inflicted when she resisted arrest.

Charges against the policemen filed by the Duncans will be heard within a week by a grand jury, state attorneys said.

FARM WEALTH IS ON INCREASE

Million Dollars Added to Crop Values in Markets

NEW HIGH PRICES SET

Short Yields Said to Cause Rapid Advances

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — "Upwards of a billion dollars has been added to the speculative values of the 1924 grain crops of America and the Canadian northwest in recent weeks as the result of the 30 cent bushel increase in wheat prices in the United States and the 42 cents a bushel jump in Canada which has pushed crop prices to new records for this year. July wheat, which sold at 1.03 1-2 on June 10, touched 1.30 1-2 Thursday, gained 4 1-2 cents for the day. All cereal futures except September corn were quoted at new high prices for the crop. Speculative trading on the board of trade on Wednesday reached its highest since May 1, 1923 with an aggregate of more than 110,000,000 bushels of all crops of which 69,000,000 bushels were wheat for future delivery. Six weeks ago trading was around 70,000,000 bushels a day. July corn has advanced from 50 cents to $1.13 in about six weeks and cash number two yellow corn brought $1.16 1-2 here Thursday the highest in years.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur's family joined him in Washington for the summer months. Photo shows them together, left to right: Leonard, the secretary, Edna and Mrs. Wilbur.

Thursday the highest in years. which on the prospective crop of 2,515,000,000 bushels for the country, was considered by grain men theoretically to have added over $500,000,000 to the farmers' bank accounts. With the advance in wheat prices of wheat flour have taken an ascent. Prices for the best known brands of Minneapolis patents, making a gain of $1.20 per barrel since June 9, and rye flour is up 75 cents at $1.00 for the same period. The poor prospect for the corn crop, with the promise of a yield of 2,315,000,000 bushels on July 1, the smallest with two exceptions in twenty years, is considered responsible for the high prices prevailing for the grains. Flax also shared in the upward movement and touched $8.10 yesterday, the highest price since last October and nearly $1.00 increase lately. All of the speculative grain markets are regarded by grain men as somewhat strained and extremely rapid price changes are expected.

Son Testifies in Custody Suit Investigated by Father

OTTAWA—The testimony of Earl Shafer, 11, son of Harry Shafer, and of his divorced wife, Mrs. Bertha Rohrs, of Deshler, undoubtedly will play an important part in the case in which Shafer is seeking to obtain custody of the children from the mother. Shafer desires that his aged mother, Mrs. Anna Shafer, care for Earl and Leroy on the farm where he lives as tenant near Belmore.

ELBA TRICE IS NAMED IN LOAN FORECLOSURE SUIT

OTTAWA — Troubles for Elba Trice, laborer, of Columbus Grove, have multiplied. Trice was brought into court this week and arraigned, following the making public of a secret indictment against him, charging abandonment of his minor child. His trial was set for August 13. Recently his action for divorce was dismissed in common pleas court, following a sensational hearing. Now the Glandorf German Building & Loan Co., which holds a mortgage on the property, known as lot 16 in Columbus Grove, has asked judgment in foreclosure against the property, totaling $428.74. The suit was filed Thursday in common pleas court here. Trice and his wife Mary Catherine Trice, against whom he has filed the divorce case, are defendants in the loan company action. SEE KELLY BROS. Queer Tribes Being Studied by Noted Explorers

BY STEPHEN HANNAGAN
NEW YORK — (AP) — Three jungle children, white Indians, brought to the world's center of civilization, have shown no interest in the things that are about them.

LOCUST SWARMS THROW HORSES IN BIG MEET

JOHANNESBURG — Locusts have appeared in such swarms in various parts of the dominion that they have interfered with the outdoor life which features the spring months here. The races at Springbush, a suburb of South Africa, were disrupted when a huge cloud of locusts descended on the course and stands while the races were in progress.

Part of the fashionable crowd, and with the bookmakers, were driven away by the locusts. The horses were crowded in for a last race and could not be identified. When the anti-locusts were on the flying carpet, the crowd fled, and the horses were left to their fate.

RECORDS LOST
BIRMINGHAM — Records are being lost in the most serious manner. A group of locusts, without a birthday, after a long search for a record, have found one. The record is that there is no record of a locust's birth.

REORGANIZATION PLANNED

CLEVELAND — Consolidation of seven companies into one unit is the plan for reorganization of the Representative Realty Company in connection with the liquidation of the representative and Municipal Savings and Loan Co. A hint of when bank reorganization is taken to court, where grand jury is investigating affairs of Representative company.

WHY WOMEN LOOK 60 AT 40

With dark circles under their eyes, yellow complexions, drawn expressions, drooping shoulders, a graying hair, many women of forty look like women of sixty. In many cases this condition is caused by overwork or neglect of such warning symptoms, as headaches, backache, nervousness, dizziness, and irregularities which indicate ailments peculiar to women. If all women so afflicted would only rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound it would restore them to a normal healthy condition and the premature signs of age will soon disappear.

LORAIN TORNADO FUND GROWS

$4,490 Subscribed in Lima in Past Week

$1,710 STILL NEEDED

Campaign Closes Monday at Drive Workers Meeting

With over two-thirds of Lima's quota of $6,200 for Lorain relief subscribed, campaign workers in charge of Relief Chairman Gibson P. Dilline, president of the Kiwanis club, are extending the campaign until Monday afternoon to put Lima over the top.

Total of $1,710 is still needed to bring a balance between the $4,490 already collected and the $6,200 quota set by Governor Donahy in his statewide relief drive to raise $600,000.

Farmers of Lima Locomotive works and the Moose lodge Thursday night stepped to the front with donations amounting to $90. The Loco workers donated $40 and the Moose lodge pledged $50. The first donation was forwarded direct to Mayor George Hoffman of Lorain.

Two other donations aggregating $675 have been sent direct to the tornado stricken area. The Buckeye Pipe Line Co. announces a gift of $500 and Lima Real Estate association has sent $175 direct.

Federation of Women's clubs responded Friday in a pledge to come to the aid of Lorain. Subscriptions are to be taken among all members, it was announced by Mrs. E. B. Taylor, who will give a report Saturday on the amount that has been raised.

TOWNS OVER THE TOP

Expectations that the drive in Lima will exceed the quota were expressed Friday by workers who are making a store to store and factory to factory canvass in the campaign which closes Monday afternoon at a meeting to be held at the Board of Commerce.

Allen-co. is expected to go considerably over its quota. Reports from small towns and rural districts are optimistic and lead to this belief. Elida has tripled its quota of $50. Beaver promises to go over the top. Beaver dam promised to raise her share and other towns are getting in line. Farmers have been a little lax in assuming their burden, but Bureau Agent H. J. Ridge has taken charge of the drive and predicts that the farmers will respond.

Quotas will be over-subscribed by the state is belief of relief workers at Columbus as the result of reports of dozens of towns and villages which have gone above their quotas in the state's $600,000 tornado relief fund.

Lake Co. communities have registered unusually high marks where Painesville and Freeport, with a quota of $800, have raised $3,000.

Crestline with a quota of $500 has more than doubled that amount and approximately $1,500 is expected to be collected before the drive ends. Arlington in Hancock-co. and West Milton in Miami-co. went over the top in four hours, subscribing $145 and $200 respectively.

Columbus Community chest donated $38,000, the city quota, and popular subscriptions amounted to nearly $10,000. Reports are being received daily at Columbus and a total far in excess to the amount requested by Governor Donahy is expected to be turned over to the sufferers at Lorain.

GOVERNMENT IS DEFEATED

MacDonald Regime is Seriously Embarrassed

LONDON — (By United Press)—The MacDonald government was defeated in commons today 171 to 149 on a vote on a proposed amendment to the unemployment insurance bill.

The defeat was due to many liberals voting against the government. Conservatives and Liberals cheered loudly when the vote was announced, and there were cries of "resign."

Defeat of the government on a fairly important issue, while it may not lead to resignation, comes at a moment calculated to be embarrassing to MacDonald, who is at the helm of the first important int-rallied gathering since labor came into power in this country. It reminded every one, delegates, included that MacDonald is a minority premier and his government a minority government retaining office only by sufferance of the opposition.

Funeral Over, "Deceased" Lad Back In Home

ATLANTA, Ga. — (By United Press)—John W. Hinton, 15, who was "buried" at Bogart late yesterday was at home with his parents here again today.

The remains of a youth found on a railroad track near Carterville were identified by Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hinton as their son who had left home a few days previously. Arrangements were made for the funeral and relatives and school mates of young Hinton viewed the body and confirmed the identity. Insurance adjusters came and arranged claims and adjustment papers.

Then the body was taken to Bogart and an impressive service held.

When the grief stricken parents and other mourners were boarding a train to return to Atlanta, young Hinton rushed up. He had been visiting with a distant relative near Bogart and his whereabouts learned by a cousin who went for him.

Authorities now believe the body buried as that of young Hinton was that of Collins, Harris, 16, of Blakely.

FACTS ARE SOUGHT IN STRUGGLE ON LAKE BOAT

CLEVELAND — Police today were hunting witnesses of a mysterious struggle on a lake excursion boat June 22, which resulted in the death Wednesday night of Mrs. Jennie Carnes, 36, employee in the county recorders office.

Mrs. Carnes was found lying in her stateroom suffering from a fractured skull which police say was the result of being hit over the head with a bottle.

George McMonagle, 31, who occupied a stateroom near that of Mrs. Carnes is being held on a charge of manslaughter in the death. According to police he admitted finding Mrs. Carnes unconscious but denies attacking her.

COUNTY JAIL INMATE DECLINES HIS FREEDOM

Floyd Coolidge, 22, arrested on charge of attempting to pass spurious checks, purporting to be signed by Mrs. W. K. Storer of Ada, is still in the county jail.

The youth declines to accept a bond offered by relatives for his release, saying he prefers to remain behind the bars.

ART TREASURES IN AUCTIONS

Hard Times Bring British Goods to Sales

SCARCE GOODS OFFERED

Many Take Advantage of Tide to Sell

LONDON—(By Associated Press)—Sir Rider Haggard writes to The Times depicting that the roofs of old English country mansions are rotting and the owners are unable to keep them up, and that with them disappears the old English country life of the old English country. The which they were the center. The contents of these old houses are being sold by auction, and the fact is that most of these valuable art treasures are being sold by London art dealers for their American customers.

Even some of the old families which are known to be immensely rich, according to English values, are taking advantage of the high tide of prices. For example, for sale soon at the famous Christie auction rooms is a group of old masters of world reputation, put up by the Duke of Westminster, which includes three pictures by Rubens forming part of a series said to have been painted by order of Philip IV, to decorate a Carmelite convent, also a Virgin and Child by Van Dyke.

Other lots offered at Christie's, which combine the value of patriotic associations with art, are: "Old English Furniture and Needlework," the property of His Grace the Duke of Wellington; "The Property of His Grace the Duke of Marlborough and removed from a farmhouse on the Blenheim Estate." Also porcelain belonging to the Right Hon. Earl Hawke, G. V. O.; the Sped heirlooms from Keele Hall, Staffordshire, which have a romantic flavor and consist mostly of old silver, furniture and porcelain; a valuable collection of pictures left by the late Earl of Hardwicke; furniture belonging to the Earl of Sandwich; and a group of old masters put up by the Right Hon. The Earl of Clarendon. P. C., G. C. B., G. C. V. O.

Among the offerings at Sotheby's within the next month are valuable pictures the property of Lady Edward Grosvenor, Sir John Hippisley, and other articles belonging to the Countess of Gosford and Cora Countess of Stratford.

SALES ARE RARE

It is many years since any of the Duke of Westminster's collection of old masters have appeared in the auction rooms, although some star pictures have occasionally been sold by a private bargain, and treasures from Blenheim have rarely been obtainable in the lifetime of the present Duke of Marlborough.

The belief that nearly everything sold goes to America is not entirely true. The good old reliable, but uninspired British landscape artists of 100 years ago whose works harmonized perfectly with the old country houses, are enjoying a boom in prices such as they have never before been honored with. The majority of them are practically unknown in America and are not in demand there, yet the swiftness with which $2,000 or $3,000 are bid for pictures that went begging on the painter's hands, shows that there is yet money in England for art.

PRICE POLICY IN GERMANY HITS MACHINERY EXPORT

BERLIN—Despite the fact that foreign countries, overseas as well as continental, have a continuous and brisk demand for machinery of all kinds, from typewriters and sewing machines to concrete machinery, German exports of machinery have been decreasing, says a recent trade report of the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany.

This is due in the first place, in addition to political and financial causes in foreign markets, to the fact that prices of German products are on the increase instead of decreasing in order to compete with foreign manufacturers. "It is a safe prediction in this connection," the report continues, "that the German exports of machinery will further decline unless basic changes take place in the matter of price policy."

The outlook for German exports in the machinery trade, adds the report, have never been quite so unfavorable as at the present time.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS INCREASE

BERLIN—Figures made public at the recent national convention of the Socialist party of Germany show that the party has 1,260,000 members who pay dues, of whom 130,000 are women. The party now has 169 newspapers.

RAILROAD PROFIT

TOKIO—The Imperial Government railways of Japan made a profit of $87,600,000 during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1924. This was disclosed by official returns recently published.

BAPTIST MINISTER GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT

No greater praise can be accorded a medicine than the voluntary testimony of a minister of the gospel. The preacher's high calling puts a grave responsibility on his every word, and he will not jeopardize his reputation by commending a thing without first assuring himself it is all right.

Tanlac has been endorsed by numbers of prominent ministers. They have put Tanlac to the test of personal service and their words carry conviction because they say what they know to be the truth.

One of the latest to speak out in behalf of Tanlac is Rev. B. E. Bell, a retired Baptist minister, 207 Elm St., San Antonio, Texas, who says:

"Before taking Tanlac I had suffered from stomach and nerve troubles for over 30 years and there were times when my condition was such that it required almost superhuman effort for me to prepare my sermons and go through with my Sunday services. Indeed, my work seemed like some great obstacle across my pathway—a burden too big to carry in my weak physical condition."

"But in six weeks' time Tanlac transformed my entire outlook, giving me what seemed like a new set of nerves and a brand new digestive system. My appetite became ravenous, my nerves steady, my liver action regular and I could sleep sound for the first time in years. Whenever I have the slightest symptoms of trouble now I always resort to Tanlac, and it never fails to smooth things out for me. I certainly have the best of reasons for feeling grateful to Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation; made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.

To Main-st

Old Friend: I like the looks of your new suit of clothes. Newly pressed and cleaned, it gives you a metropolitan air that makes us all feel better. Of course your tailor, George Walther, has a few more pieces to make and put in place before you are ready to face the world on your own responsibility, but if it is all as satisfactory as that already completed I know we will like you more than ever before.

LIMA BEANE

To Industries
 To Farmers

Gentlemen: In looking over my mail I notice a prediction by one of the leading economic services that the lot of the farmer is rapidly growing better and the gap that has been seen between prices paid by the farmer and those received by him is rapidly closing. This means prosperity is at hand for those living on the farms. The same bulletin shows that the liquidation period in business is nearly over and that the time for the curtailment of output is at an end. This will be welcome news to all of us as it points to increased production due to greater efficiency and a gradual readjustment until trade is again on the upward swing. I hope every merchant, manufacturer and farmer will be ready to grasp the first opportunity to better conditions.

LIMA BEANE

To My People

Dear Friends: This is the time of year when you should be particularly careful of your health. While my city is not experiencing a wave of disease such as many are threatened with, I would warn you not to aid in bringing about undue sickness here. Watch your diet and consult a physician when the human machine is not functioning well. This is particularly applicable to infants and children.

LIMA BEANE

To My Givers

Dear Folks: Your response to the appeal from Lorain has been very satisfactory. Those of my city who are working to see the quota exceeded report great interest among all persons in the city. It is not the large amounts that count but the generous response by everyone. I hope twice the quota is raised.

LIMA BEANE

To Yank Athletes

Dear Boys: Your victories in the international athletic contests have been very gratifying to me. I wish that one of the sturdy youngsters from my own city had been there but the fact that you are Americans and won makes me forget my own desires. Our country stands supreme in more ways than one.

LIMA BEANE

To President Coolidge

Dear Cal: Was just writing a few lines to the other candidates and didn't want you to feel slighted. Allow me to compliment you on being in fine physical condition, as your examination yesterday showed, after serving your country almost a year. My one hope is that you so conserve your strength that you will not meet with misfortunes such as have overtaken other chief executives in office.

LIMA BEANE

To Candidate Davis

Dear John: I like the way you are going about the job of getting yourself the White House assignment. Looks to me like a big man going after a big job in a big way.

And that, John, is what the presidency of this great republic is. It is not a four-year vacation at $75,000 per for the purpose of naming postmasters and dishing out privileges to private interests.

You have shown that you are capable of big things; that you are above the petty larceny tricks that have been perpetrated in some of the high offices in the past—petty larceny in principle but grand larceny in amount. I am for you.

LIMA BEANE

To Voters

Citizens: Registration day for the August primaries will be July 25. This is fair notice that you are to see that you are properly registered and ready to go to the polls and aid in picking the candidates for the November election. There is no use in going over the old story—it is well known to everyone. It may be well to repeat, however, that you cannot expect to have good candidates in November if you neglect your duty now.

LIMA BEANE

To Householders

Friends: I'm not selling coal and am not boasting any one's business in this column. I do know that we will all need coal next winter and I know it can be bought at a better advantage and cheaper now than it can be later when everyone starts a mad scramble. A hint should be sufficient.

LIMA BEANE

To J. A. MacReady

Dear Birdman: I am awaiting your visit here. You have made the United States famous thruout the world with your altitude flights having soared into the sky higher than an aged person like me will ever get. One thing that need not worry you is your speech. Just tell us in a matter of fact way how it feels to be up out of sight of land and that will satisfy us. The members of my Kiwanis club will prove royal hosts, I am sure.

LIMA BEANE

To Senator LaFollette

Dear Bob: If claiming things will get you anywhere, your campaign managers will have you where Cal Coolidge now is long before the November election. Hot air won't get all the votes, however. I'm not the optimist that some politicians can appear to be.

LIMA BEANE

To the Fishermen

Boys: Are the anglers growing less inclined to use an elastic measuring string? The season is at its height and the tales I have heard so far have been most conservative. Cawn't account for it, you know!

After a lazy interim, up to the deceptive south of a brick shack, into my knitted overs, and be-towstairs to breakfast on a Florida orange and strangled eggs.

ABE MARTIN

There's out to greet the sun on the asphalt. And returned, in exceeding great haste. To change the knitted for a thin muslin. To the post and gathered there divers communications of portentious look. And a postal from Coventry Platt, one-time fair resident of Lima. Now, touching Europe, the postal being from noble Florence. In Italy. The city of Old Masters (not Dutch Masters), and burning sunlight. The Baptist, and thick dust.

At my stint betimes, and about the town. Chatting with Miss Smith and Mr. Green at the Miss American. Bowed in great pleasure to Mr. A. D. Newman at the Central Building and Loan. Mr. Bruce Aggas very gay behind the bars at the Lima Trust. So feeling, in sadly erroneous manner, very much in pocket and of import, into Dr. Alan's office. And backed out in great haste. In a flurry to order two extra dozen chairs from Williams & Davis. For the patient waiters, poor folk Dr. Alan bustled at the Eustachian Tube. But prefer the Hudson, methinks.

Lunched, tout seul, on hasty pudding, with carrot relish. And the gay Cockatoo on his bracket.

above me very complacent. Albeit, he had eaten naught. So in high contempt for such decorative assembly, back to the shoppe. And, picking up Mr. Wexelbaum in the gas wagon, d.d. hurry him past the green light. In time for him to punch the clock betimes, without fear of dock.

After a warm afternoon of great zeal at my roltop, home to escort Mrs. T. D. McLaughlin thru our jungle. Or so she named it. Constructing with rare imagination from the sight of two playful bubbles, a thick and brambly bush, a radish bed, and thirteen crickets. She newly, come from Columbus. Where, 'tis said, the Elks will not let ladies play their golf course on the Sabbath.

Dined on a sirlon of beef and a tasty baked potato. With luscious giant raspberries, fresh from Shawnee, for the piece de resistance. Strolled in the unusual moon light, so long absent of nights. And did have great chat with Virginia and Bob Galvin, circling the block with the steel king. Who had just paid the chit for ice cream cones. Thence home and early this night to bed.

THE CARE OF THE TEETH

Eight of every 10 pupils in the schools of Anna, Ill., were found to have cavities in their teeth, anywhere from one to 17 cavities. One in every five pupils had roots or gum abscesses or roots that needed extraction. Only one in every six of the pupils had undecayed teeth. More than half of them had "fairly clean teeth," more than one-fourth of them had perfectly clean teeth.

That is a fair average condition of the teeth of children and youths, I should say.

Now let us see how come. School Life, published by the bureau of education at Washington, gives the data I am quoting. Of all the pupils whose teeth were examined, 47.9 per cent used a toothbrush irregularly, 44.6 per cent used the brush daily, and 7.5 used no brush.

Does it pay to use a toothbrush at all. I am carefully refraining from committing myself on that. I neither affirm nor deny. I merely inquire. What do you think.

The survey does not inform us whether the 7.5 per cent of pupils who used no toothbrush had the best teeth of the lot, but I should like to have an opportunity to make a good wager with some one who believes in brushing the teeth, on a question like that.

Until we get away from our present custom of restricting children to ultra-refined and denatured food the more or less regular daily use of the toothbrush will probably remain an essential of mouth hygiene. I therefore advise that every child be taught to make use of the toothbrush daily as part of the toilet, from the earliest possible time after the cutting of the first tooth to the time of the eruption of such of the third molars (wisdom teeth) as the individual is to have. About half of us go thru life shy from one to all four wisdom teeth at present. We don't need 'em to masticate pap.

I'm a little regretful now to all the good time I wasted brushing my teeth after I had cut my wisdom teeth. In the first place, it didn't get me any way of better teeth. In the next place I might have devoted that time with greater advantage to the business of saving my hair. Once in a month or two, even comes a dirty feeling but doesn't save any teeth.

The nature of the diet and the use of the teeth in the mastication of the kinds of foods required to furnish the kind of material to build sound teeth, determine the condition of the teeth, not the tooth brushing rite. The diet of the prospective mother must be adequate to insure sound teeth for the unborn child. The infant's diet must be adequate. The child's diet and the diet of the adult should be undenatured.

THE FIRST WATCH

If I were asked one thing to name richer in pleasure's golden thrall
 Which it has been my lot to claim.
 One treasure which surpasses all
 The many which have made me glad—
 The greatest source of pride and joy
 Would be that first real watch I had
 When I was but a little boy.

I found it at my breakfast plate
 One birthday morning years ago.
 Nor have I language now to state
 The gladness of that startled "O!"
 A watch! A real watch for me!
 Such pleasure never comes again.
 But once in life a boy can be
 So happy with a watch and chain.

The pride I felt I could not mask.
 Its ticking was a sound sublime.
 I hoped that passers-by would ask
 If I could tell to them the time.
 A hundred times a day, campelled by happy tears my play I dropped
 And to my ears that watch I held
 To be convinced it hadn't stopped.

It seemed to me the world must know
 That I possessed a time piece true.
 I had a treasure I must show
 And artfully I did it, too.
 I'd steal a thousand looks to see
 If still those hands were moving round
 And wondered if men noticed me
 Or heard that gentle ticking sound.

Now to that first watch here I sing
 This little feeble hymn of praise.
 And all my gratitude I bring
 For radiant joy of by-gone days.
 And whoso'er there dwells a boy,
 He, too, shall know what I have known.
 And reach the topmost peak of joy
 In that first watch he soon shall own.

SON TROUBLED WITH PIMPLES

On Face For About a Year. Healed by Cuticura.

"My son was troubled with pimples on his face for about a year. They were red and tender and scaled over. The pimples itched causing him to pick them, which made them worse, and his face looked badly. He read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped him so he purchased more, and in about six weeks he was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Rose Waterman, Teton, Wyoming.

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap and occasional touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soften, soothe and heal. They are ideal for the toilet, as is also Cuticura Talcum.

I suppose that the same quality of imagination which lifts me above the rest of those whom society is pleased to call outlaws, is responsible for the feeling of indignation which possesses me when I look upon any brutality. I am not matter-of-fact; I am an artist. And the artist, more keenly than the material-minded man of business, resents any imperfection, whether it be of the body or of the spirit.

And here were both! The hunchback, imperfect of body—and the superstitious lout, imperfect of spirit, who stroked the puppy.

They were standing on the curb at the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Fifth Avenue, waiting for a break in traffic which would permit them to cross the street. I was doing the same thing. I had walked from the snug little apartment, which at the moment I was maintaining on Central Park West, across town on my way to attend a luncheon on Madison Avenue. It was a balmy spring day, the sort of morning which after a blustery March revives one's faith in the miracles of Nature. Exactly as a pretty girl revives one's faith, I admit that my faith had been revived several times this morning. It seemed to me that all the lovely girls of the universe had been placed in Central Park and on the Avenue this morning, to tantalize me with thought of what might have been.

Who hated the world, loved this morning. Yet it was the hopeless love of one who knows that the simple joys are denied to him. I felt a moisture welling beneath my lids; my eyes were stinging. Then I laughed at my sentimentality. I had made my three months ago when, after years of desperate struggle along the paths of honesty, I had given up the unequal battle and become a part of those who prey. It sufficed me that no young girl would ever be harmed by me—and even knowing me might some day cause her irreparable damage. As I have said in one of my previous memoirs, like Napoleon's cat, I walk alone.

So, because I was in a softened mood, as well as because I am an artist and a gentleman, I felt a surge of pity for the hunchback, and a surge of wrath against the man who stood beside him. For the latter person rubbed the hunchback's back.

Oddly enough, although the lout seemed none too gentle, the cripple did not resent the action. Perhaps, poor devil, he had become so used to the brutalities of his fellows, that his spirit had lost its powers of resentment.

A year or so ago, when I had been crushed by the brutalities of life, I would have set no value on the lout's slight. I had then been unable to become angry at indignities heaped upon myself. Materialists would tell you that I had since lost my soul, but I tell you I had found it. A year ago, a honest man, I would have sneered cynically; today, a thief I took the lout by the collar and threw him across the street.

The north and south-bound traffic halted as the lights flicked on the tower down the Avenue. The policeman blew his whistle and waved the pedestrians to pass over. It was an opportunity, and as my bewildered victim climbed unsteadily to his feet muttering threats, I moved with the human tide and passed the doors of a hotel across the street, slipped thru its reception-rooms and came out upon Fifth-ninth Street, certain that I had avoided pursuit, and not without a faint future recognition. As for the hunchback, he had not glanced my way.

By extreme caution, I eliminated accidents. Before I entered the auction rooms which were my destination, I glanced over my shoulder to make certain that no offensively right-minded person was guiding upon my trail. The man whom I had knocked down in a street-brawl in which I was concerned, it is conceivable that I might be asked my means of livelihood, a question of obvious embarrassment.

So I entered the auction-rooms, and took a chair in the rear. Half an hour passed before I made a bid, and then I offered fifty dollars for a mediocre tapestry. I acquired it at eighty dollars, gave a check to the attendant, ordered the thing sent to my apartment, and settled back in my chair to watch the rest of the proceedings. I do not think it advisable that I should be merely a spectator at auctions; a connoisseur, even tho in a small way, achieves an instant standing. And my acquisition of the tapestry proved that I had fair taste along with probably modest means.

Of course I had not come here solely to purchase. Indeed, the tapestry would hardly conform to the color-scheme of my rooms. Once again I felt the sentiment of springtime. I wanted a place where I could put things that I had acquired for the joy of acquisition, and because they belonged in that home. Deliberately I dismissed the dangerous thoughts.

No man can be a success in business if he devotes his office hours to sentimental musing. These were my office hours, and I was here on business. For where in the world is one more likely to have opportunity to see and study these possessions of wealth than in an auction-room where articles of tremendous value are put upon the block? And the International Auction company catered to a clientele of millionaires. Such bargains as my bit of tapestry only occurred when they were minor parts of a great collection.

Nearly everything else was priced in the thousands, and did not interest me, altho occasionally I noted the names and addresses of the purchasers. And then came the Gerald jewel-box. Gerald was a multimillionaire of vulgar antecedents and taste who had died a few years ago. Six months later, his widow left behind him, and they had left heirs who chose to rid themselves of the miscellaneous collection which the Gerald had acquired. I could not blame the heirs, for most of the Gerald possessions were more suited to the walls or cabinets of a museum than to a private home.

And when the auctioneer held up a golden box, studded with jewels, I felt embarrassment for him, compelled as he was to declare that this article was a work of art. It was about nine inches long, six inches wide and four inches deep; and workmanship, even a high degree of craftsmanship, had been expended upon it. But the thing was too gorgeous for flamboyant, and one readily believed the auctioneer's statement that the late Mr. Joseph Gerald had himself superintended the designing, and the manufacture of the box. One also believed without hesitation that it had cost the multi-millionaire over ninety thousand dollars. Certainly the precious stones that studded it were worth, at least fifty thousand.

But the very idea that had given birth to the box was vulgar. It had been intended to be the receptacle for certain jewels of Gerald's wife.

The thing angered me. Artists in general are not to be deceived by Gerald's money and forced to prostitute their gifts for gold and jewels, who propose to buy the thing for its intrinsic value, should bid upon it. But Gerald's death had not rid the world of vulgarity.

The bidding opened at ten thousand dollars, and progressed rapidly to twenty-five thousand, confined to men whom I intuitively knew were dealers. Then another man took a hand. His clothing alone stamped him for what he was, a newly enriched vulgarian. For his coat was cut in the extreme of Broadway fashion; his neckwear was an offense to a gentleman, and the solitary diamond that gleamed from its silk folds must have weighed a dozen carats. He had not been born to money; long acquaintance with it would have incited in him a few, at least, of the fundamentals of correct attire. His nose was a mere plob, piglike. His eyes, peeping over rolls of fat, were also porcine. His forehead slanted back, and his heavy jaws and jutting chin made him animal-like. Another of the filthy proletarians who had grown fat upon the sufferings of the world! Another of those persons who had risen from the depths during civilization's great convulsion.

I could picture the wife of this man; as loathsome as himself, doubtless. Also I could picture the priceless jewelry that would go into that box. For it is many would give sixty-five thousand dollars for a box of that kind.

He was knocked down to him at that price—for a place in which to put his jewels, what were the jewels themselves worth?

The man thought made a dizzy. If I could get my hands upon that box when it was full of the fancies that spring had put into my mind today might be possible to me. One of those young fellows who had seemed infatuated with the Avenue today.

"Sold to Mr. Marcus Anderson," said the auctioneer.

He was supposed to have become, during the war, one of the richest men in the world. My appraisal of him had been absolutely correct, and my vanity was tickled that, even in so light a matter, I had not erred.

I watched him go to a desk and write a check. My eyes followed him as he came down the aisle and passed thru the door. He came so close to me that the skirt of his coat brushed my knees. Mr. Anderson, as he climbed into his enormous town-car, did not know how nearly he had escaped a violent attack.

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innocent Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

TON TO JAMES CONDON

DEAR JIM:

As I read your long letter I laughed and—no, I didn't cry. I just swore a little now and then.

You say you are talking to me like a father. You are doing nothing of the kind, my dear. You are just talking like a boy who is much hurt by the varied indifference of his beloved.

Dear Jim, I am very fond of you—you should know that. You did make my life bearable all that time while you and I and Sam were with Mr. Hamilton. You taught me all the patience I shall ever know. You were so kind and sweet to Sam while he was recovering his sight, and he was so irascible and impossible. He could not have kept his position with Mr. Hamilton a minute if it had not been for you.

As it was, when I found I could not keep my position as a wife—when I found I was a coward—when I found it was not in my nature to accept personal responsibility—when I found that I hated to pay for my mistakes more than anything else in the world—I ran away and came over here.

I thought it would be better for all of us. Poor old Sam is out of it, and you are over there succeeding as you should be, while I—well, Jim, I'm going to be a rich woman before I die.

I don't want to be any one's wife. Of course, I like to be loved. You were very sweet when you implied that I would give up the attentions of any one for the speech of people, if the man amused me. I will do nothing of the kind. For it's only amusement, Sam—it's exactly the same kind of amusement that is always being prepared for the tired business man—just something by which to forget. The lethal drink of some man's flatteries always rests me.

But I don't want to be serious about it, even with you, my dear. Surely you know, dear boy, that a man is much worse off if he marries his first love than if he throws his long life he remembers her as an ideal. Think how lovely it will be when you are older, and bored to death with the world and your wife, and harassed by responsibilities of your children, to sit by the fire and dream how much better it would have been had you married me. These "would have beens," dear boy, are not sad; they are just memories of dreams that are beautiful—too beautiful to be ever realized.

Yet, I expect, dear boy, that I am about the worst woman on earth to idealize, for I have no particular feminine ideals or even particularly feminine ideas, you know.

I want to succeed. I want money. I want a lot of money—not because it means so much to me in itself, but because money seems to be the measure by which all America computes success, and I have a wholly masculine desire to be successful in whatever I undertake.

UNITED STATES TEAM CONTINUES WINNING AT OLYMPIAD

Washington Drops Back A Peg; Cincinnati Wins While Giants Lose Overtime Session

SENATORS STILL NECK AND NECK WITH YANKS

With the American league season better than half gone, it is unusual to see three teams striving for first place and each but a stride in advance of the other. There is a total of .018 points between the Yankees in first place and the Detroit Tigers in third and .005 points between Washington and the world's champs. This time last year the Yankees were out in front by a large margin, and it was generally conceded that they would win and they did, but now the situation is tense, and a couple of games makes so much difference that where the team is leading today they may be third tomorrow.

There is one thing certain the world's champs are not the team they were last season. The claim that several of the Yankees' veterans are showing up is apparent. It seems that they will not be able to win their fourth consecutive pennant with the team as it is now intact. Washington is playing fast and furious hitting and pitching both requisites to pennants and winning games. According to the last official averages both the Yankees and the Senators were batting equal, or as near as it can be figured, the percentages being: New York .2911; Washington .2919, with Detroit .2908. Cleveland is leading the league, but they are playing such an unrelenting game, brilliant today and abominable tomorrow so much so that there is little to base facts upon. At all events it is the fastest and closest race, so far as the American league is concerned that has happened for several seasons.

SENATORS HANGING ON
NEW YORK (United Press)—The Associated Press Washington bureau, hanging on the heels of the New York Yankees, for supremacy in the American league, lost a point in the percentage column by dividing a double head-to-head St. Louis, the Browns winning the first game 3 to 2.

The White Sox humbled the Athletics again, 13 to 5. Young Hollis Thurston pitched his ninth consecutive victory.

St. Louis broke even in today's double header, the former winning the first game 10 to 7, the latter 2 to 1. The initial hit was a pitching duel between Davis and Zachary, while the pitchers were changed frequently on both sides.

SOX WAKE UP
CHICAGO (United Press)—In a game abounding in extra base hits Chicago defeated Philadelphia, 14 to 5, and gave young Hollis Thurston his ninth consecutive victory. The Sox had the better of the argument for the first six innings, but Chicago's clutch hitting with one on base followed by another from Whipple's bat won two, gave the White Sox a lead that never was headed.

Tilden Booked To Play At Chicago
CHICAGO (United Press)—"Big Bill" Tilden was booked for play in the singles and doubles at the Illinois State Tennis tournament Friday. He confirmed his activities Thursday to the two-man division.

Yesterday's play saw Harvey Snodgrass, Los Angeles, runner up to Tilden, eliminated by Al Green Jr., Chicago. The score was 2, 6, 6-4, 7-5.

Snodgrass was the only Californian eliminated. Howard Kinsey, San Francisco, defeated George Lott, Chicago, and "Peck" Griffin another Californian, defeated Luke Williams, Chicago.

Robert Kinsey, brother of Howard, who has been out of play because of a sprained arm, will go into the doubles today.

SWIMMING HINTS

Swimmers who try to frighten beach citizens by staying under water will offend no one by failing to come up.

Swimmers who can't swim will gain nothing by going out in water over their heads. There is enough rubbish at bottom of lake without adding to it.

Swimmers who wear rubber jewelry on all occasions will find beach citizens by staying under water will offend no one by failing to come up.

Swimmers who dive from lofty heights should always pick out shallow places. In this way science may soon find out what really happens when irresistible force meets immovable object.

Swimmers who play practical jokes on lifeguards by screaming for help should never be helped. If lifeguard hasn't a gun handy he should throw a 16-pound hammer, respecting all A. A. U. regulations, of course.

Swimmers of simple sex who spend their time on beach getting out of tan should remember that it takes more than one garment to make full suit of clothes.

Swimmers of slim sex who go to beach to look sweet young things in one-pieceers should know this practice is highly of fensive. Especially to sweet young things whom you fail to ogle.

Swimmers who use beach for dining table should at least be thoughtful enough to break picnic bottles into sharp pointed fragments and arrange them on sand in neat decorative designs.

Swimmers who imagine beach was made for baseball games, horseshoe pitching tournaments, community picnics and debris scattering contests are correct on all ballots.

Swimmers who go to beach for simple purpose of swimming and enjoying the sun in quiet manner should have heads examined.

Industrials Will Play Saturday

Only two games will be played in the industrial league Saturday afternoon. Victor Bird, V. M. C. A. industrial secretary, announced Friday. Both of the contests will be played at Murphy's park, he said.

The Police and Ohio Power men were scheduled to play at Fairport park, but since employees of the Ohio Power Co. will hold a picnic at Orchard Island Saturday, the game was marked ahead and played July 5 with the Ohio Power winning.

At Murphy's the B. & O. will play the Superior Motor Coach Body Co. in the first seven-inning game, while the Crane meets the Levee in the second.

The first game is expected to be hard-fought as the B. & O. has won but a single game all season while the Superior team has won two each dropping five contests. B. & O., by winning, will send the Superiors to last place in the standings.

ANYWAY OUR HELEN HELPED

HELEN WILLIS, LEFT; MRS. GEORGE WIGHTMAN, RIGHT

Beaten in the singles on three occasions, Helen Willis, champion tennis player of America, nevertheless showed flashes of championship form during the Wimbledon matches in England. Paired with Mrs. George Wightman, the coast school girl played an important part in bringing the doubles championship to this country. Critics believe this taste of victory was just what she needed to put her in a winning mood and they predict she will be at her best during the Olympic matches to be determined later.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

Being a Criticism of the Just and the Unjust in the World of Professional and Amateur Sports

BY HARRY GARDNER

There came from Baltimore to the Boston Reds, July 11, 1914, a young fellow named George Herman Ruth. He was heralded as some pitcher among the length and breadth of minor leagues. But this don't count very much in the big show. The opposing team was the Cleveland Indians, and the game was played at Boston. George went along very nicely up to the seventh inning when things reversed and the heavy hitters of Cleveland landed on George Herman for three linges and a sacrifice. The Boston Reds had managed to get four men across for counts; one in the first, home, not even a simple single to help his team get a safe margin. But he was pitching then and not playing the field, and of course, couldn't be expected to hit the ball. Things have changed now. He couldn't hit when he broke in the big show, but he's learned a heap since then.

EARL COMBS IS MISSED
Miller Huggins thinks that Earl Combs is the best fielder that has broken into the big since Ty Cobb or Tris Speaker. It is certain that the Yankees are missing him too, since he suffered a broken leg and Huggins is fearful that even when he begins playing again he will never regain his speed or old time form. And he has need to be for it is certain that he gave every promise that Huggins made for him. The records show that in 23 games he was at bat 34 times, made 10 runs and 14 hits, which means that he was hitting at a .432 rate. Absolute accuracy, his Cobb, Speaker or Edie. Rough job up but very seldom, perhaps in 20 years; there is some thing about them, different from the other stars of the national pastime. In speaking of his quality ifications the manager of the Yankees called attention to the fact that he did not know of a small weakness of Combs, either in the field or at the bat. If he has one it is that there are other fielders in the big show that have better arms, still it is not weak by any means, and he is a natural hitter, has no trouble with any kind of pitching and he always hits the ball hard. He is a great big fellow but he is unusually fast, and can get to first base as quick as the smaller player, and when he gets on he uses his speed and has an advantage in getting a high lead. He is a good base runner as well as a fielder or hitter. There is every reason to believe that he is great, missed by the Yankees this season, as they are having a hard time keeping in front or near the front.

FIRST HITLESS GAME IN NATIONAL LEAGUE
I have a communication from an ardent fan asking if I have any information of who pitched the first hitless game in the National league. I have a whole barrel of these old time records and in digging I find that George Washington Bradley must be given credit for the honor. The game was between St. Louis and Hartford, July 18, 1876, and was the third successive game in which he whitewashed the Hartford. In this game there were four men reached first base, three on errors and one on balls. One of these runners was put out on a double play, one struck out and three fled to the outfield—they could catch a fly ball in those days just the same as they do now; four died by infield plays, one on a foul fly one on a foul bound and sixteen on infield grounders. The St. Louis team beat the Hartford's that day 2-0.

George Washington Bradley was one of the most famous pitchers of his time.

HELEN WINS AGAIN

PARIS—(United Press)—Helen Willis, American woman tennis champion won her way to the finals of the Olympic championships by defeating Mme. Golding, France, 6-2; 6-1 in the semi-finals.

Thus the little American girl whose failure to win the world's championship at Wimbledon disappointed her admirers has a chance for equally important title—Olympic champion. To secure this she must defeat the winner of the McKane-Vlasto match in the finals on Monday.

Miss Willis' game is vastly improved over the form she showed in England; her health is better, and she is playing a stronger game on the hard courts with American balls.

TY WOULD QUIT
BOSTON—After 20 years of fly chasing Ty Cobb says he is ready to quit active baseball. He said here that if he could find a man to take his place next season he would withdraw from the league and assume charge of the Tigers from the bench.

TOO FAST FOR OLD HOSS
NEW YORK — The major leagues have lost their glamour for Cliff Markle, former pitching star of the St. Paul American association ball club. Markle was purchased by the Yankees but in several starts was routed from the box. He suddenly disappeared Wednesday. Miller Huggins found a note from Markle asking to be traded back into the American association.

The Stellars have been beaten in their last two games, and they are anxious to get on the winning and once again. AMERICANS ANNEX SEVERAL MORE TITLES

PARIS — Having added the rowing championship to the track and field title among the major Olympic crowns, the American competitors will carry on among reduced fields, survivors remaining in three outstanding sports, swimming, tennis and boxing.

Altho two more of their number, Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup and R. Norris Williams II were eliminated from the Olympic tennis singles Thursday, the ranks of the United States representatives on the Colombes courts remained as contenders for all five championships.

Vincent Richards, in the men's singles, and Miss Helen Willis, the American champion, in the women's singles, are entered in the semi-finals this afternoon.

The sixth day of the swimming contest will see four finals disputed for a total distribution of 100 points in what is likely to be the deciding competition. America, after yesterday's victories of the men divers and breast stroke swimmers, has a 31 point lead over Australia and is expected to establish an unbeatable lead by night fall.

Twelve of the original 16 American boxers in the Olympic tournament remained in the running at the start of Friday's battling. They include contenders in all but the 150 pound class.

East Side, West Side
Adapted from the stirring drama by Leighton Osmun and Henry Hull, "East Side, West Side" which opened Thursday at the Sigma, is a picture bound to appeal to all classes of movie fans. It serves in pointing a fine moral, carries exceptional dramatic moments, and offers a realistic slice of life in New York.

The story deals with a young girl, Lory James, who has infinite faith in herself and refuses to give up her ideals. She meets a man from the West Side who engages her as his secretary. It is a case of love at first sight and she is stationed in his home, the romance goes on apace. Here the girl not only has to buck the pitfalls of her environment but has to encounter the bitterness of the young man's mother who looks upon her as inferior socially and mentally.

Then comes a dramatic climax when the mother threatens to disinherit her son unless he gives up the girl. But he with fine manliness counters with the remark that he will make his own way in the world and marry the girl he chooses. Then comes a new barrier when the girl comes into a fortune of her own. The youth, feeling disinherited, cannot offer his love to the girl, for she might think he is marrying her for her money. But this complication is straightened out when the mother has learned how the girl and finally appreciates the sterling character of the girl and begs forgiveness.

Eileen Percy as the girl, is shown in a role strikingly different from anything she has heretofore attempted. Kenneth Harlan, playing opposite her, gives an effective presentation of the young man from the West Side.

At The Quilna

"A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in the Malamute saloon"—and then comes the biggest thrill in the great Metro production, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," appearing for the last half of the week at the Quilna theatre. Adapted from the immortal poem by Robert W. Service in his "Spell of the Yukon" and with Barbara La Marr, Percy Marmont and Lew Cody in the principal roles, the picture takes its place among the screen classics of the year.

The famous poem has been worked out in full for the film version, the early part of the story which leads up to the celebrated shooting taking place in the South Sea Isles and New York. The variety of settings offers a wonderful chance for a succession of thrills, and director Clarence Badger has realized every opportunity.

Barbara La Marr as the Lady Known as Lou has never appeared more beautiful nor as filled with dramatic fire as in the surging story of love in the Yukon. Lew Cody as the Dangerous Dan McGrew has made the character one of grim sternness and villainy. Percy Marmont is the Husband and puts every bit of tragic meaning into his acting. Mae Busch, as Lou's friend and George Seligman, complete the stellar quintet which make up a really extraordinary cast.

The picture is preceded by the Quilna News and Lyman H. Howe's "Hodge Podge."

Rescues Girl, She Robs Him

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(By United Press)—Ernest Jewell, 23, is advising young men to be very careful about the kind of a girl they rescue from drowning.

Jewell showed up at police headquarters wearing only a thin blanket and explained that a girl had made off with all his clothes. He said he jumped in the river to rescue her from drowning herself and that afterwards she insisted he step behind a fringe of bushes and undress so that she could dry his clothes for him.

Jewell said he tossed over his clothes, money, watch and all that if the girl hadn't thrown him a blanket he probably would be waiting yet for his clothes to dry.

AIR MAIL KEPT ON SCHEDULE

Storms Fail to Delay Intrepid American Fliers

OMAHA—(By Associated Press)—Despite several severe electrical storms, service over the United States transcontinental air mail route, F. Egge, general superintendent of the air mail service, said in his report submitted to second assistant postmaster general, Colonel Paul Henderson, today.

Egge called attention to the fact that the air mail planes during that period flew 50,400 miles, of which 24,550 were covered at night over the 855 miles artificially lighted airway between Chicago and Cheyenne.

"Altho six of the fifteen days were stormy," he said, "not a trip, not a single mile, was defaulted. Westbound planes left New York on time, arrived in San Francisco on the evening of the second day. For five days arrivals were made ahead of time. Eastbound, seven trips were made from the west coast to New York on time. At all times the air mail arrived in ample time for delivery the following morning. At no time was the eastbound flight more than a few minutes late."
